

All three of our hotels are situated in outstandingly beautiful areas of Scotland. The rugged natural beauty of Scotland's glens and mountains await the intrepid explorer inside you at any time of the year.

Tales of Robert the Bruce, Rob Roy, the Jacobite rebellion, treason and treachery abound, with many award winning heritage centres offering fascination insight into the past.

More contemporary pastimes are catered for with pony trekking, go-karting, watersports and scuba diving offered by specialist firms for any level from beginner upwards.

"In the middle of everywhere!"

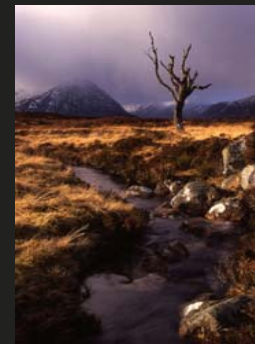

All three of our hotels are easily accessible by road & public transport. With Edinburgh & Glasgow less than 2 hours drive away and all of Scotland's major cities within 3 hours we think of ourselves as in the middle of everywhere!
